Jasmine Parente

Jasmine Parente is originally from Asheville, North Carolina, where she began her dance training at the Ballet Conservatory of Asheville before continuing her pre-professional education at The HARID Conservatory, graduating in 2022. She recently earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Ballet from the University of Utah, where she expanded her training in classical ballet, neoclassical, and contemporary repertoire. Her performance highlights include Paquita from Grand Pas Classique, the Prelude in Les Sylphides, and soloist roles in Coppélia and La Vivandière. Jasmine has also performed several principal and soloist roles in The Nutcracker, including an international performance with Ballet Nacional Dominicano in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

Jasmine is thrilled to be joining Colorado West Ballet for the 2026-27 season and is so excited to dance alongside this beautiful company!
